MARION COUNTY

2014

(Revised 19 June 2014)

This list contains verified information about organizations in Marion County, Indiana that provide services for people with felony convictions.

Indianapolis

Gregory A. Ballard, Mayor

“Re-Entry is a process, not an event”

The Mayor's Office of Offender Re-Entry is committed to assisting the successful community reintegration of every person with a criminal history residing in Marion County to help ex-offenders transition into positive roles in their community; the City of Indianapolis continues to partner with local businesses to connect pre-qualified ex-offenders with employers and job opportunities. Additionally, we continue to work with and rely on the many quality community service providers who share in our commitment to successful re-entry.

OUR VISION

A barrier-free community that embraces people with criminal histories and that provides opportunities for successful reintegration.

OUR MISSION

The Mayor's Office of Ex-Offender Re-entry is committed to promoting an asset based perspective about re-entry that focuses on the strengths of persons with criminal histories and the communities they live in.

Connect to Help (2-1-1), CHIP's Handbook and HRH's Web Site is always a great place to start when searching for resources solutions to individual or family needs.
Their information is at the back of this book.

In the following pages you will find a listing of Marion County Community Service Providers that are dedicated to this same mission and vision.

Upon your release, please visit one of our Indianapolis Re-entry Resource Centers, where one of their Re-entry Support Coaches can help you connect with Services in the Community you can use.
The complete list of Resource Centers is at the back of this book.

It is our sincere hope that these resources are helpful in your day to day operations.
